Dear Mrs. Howard:—I received resolutions of your chapter in regard to the establishment of a Division of Information to promote a beneficial distribution of aliens admitted to the United States. During my service here I have been interested in securing such distribution, and secured the passage of a bill providing an immigrants' home in Galveston, and aided in securing the passage of bills for one each in New-Orleans, La., and Charleston, S. C., and I will take pleasure in doing what I can to secure the object sought in your resolutions.

Yours very truly,
A. W. Gregg.

Junior Aid Society of Baptist Church.

Last evening, in the basement of the Baptist church, the Junior Aid entertained their friends in a delightful manner. The basement had been transformed into a reception hall, with rugs, tabourettes and chairs. Pot plants and flowers were attractive; lace curtains added to the cheerfulness of the hall. Messrs. Oscar As-mann, David Joost, Henry Kitcher and Atkinson gave beautiful music as an orchestra, with Mrs. Asmann accompanying. Miss Dimple Scott delighted all with her rendition of a weak mother and a wilful boy. A dining room had been arranged at one side of the basement, and here delicious refreshments were served by Misses Louellen Shirley, Isa Nance, Ruby Stevenson, Lila Cutter, Mittie Chamber and Mrs. Henry Kitcher. This Aid Society, though scarcely a year old, has distinguished itself by noble works of love and loyalty.

Sewing Club.

Miss Eva Landau entertained the Sewing Club yesterday afternoon. A delightful afternoon was soon passed in work and exchange of interesting ideas. At the close of the work hour a delicious luncheon was served. Miss Landau was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Ben Landau, and sister, Miss Ida Landau, in entertaining. Misses Helen Lake and Marguerite Morris were out-of-town guests.

Working Some.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church is one of the busiest organizations in existence today, we verily believe. There are eight divisions of it, with eight captains and eight lieutenants. Mrs. S. P. Duncan, captain of No. 1; Mrs. C. Roe Hall, captain of No. 2; Mrs. Edgar Hill, captain of No. 3; Mrs. Willard Karn, captain of No. 4; Mrs. W. B. Reilly, captain of No. 5; Mrs. J. C. Stevens, captain of No. 6; Mrs. Tab Sadler, captain of No. 7; Mrs. W. E. Swift, captain of No. 8. Each captain has pledged for her army of co-workers $100.00, and each division has that amount pledged. They, like all soldiers, have their colors, and just now the Reds are the victorious side, having gained eighty-five new members, with Mrs. C. Roe Hall as captain. The Blues, with Mrs. S. P. Duncan captain, have gained fifty new members. The Blues came boldly to the front, and honored the Reds with not only congratulations, but a beautiful entertainment yesterday afternoon in the church parlors. The captains and their armies were present, also a great many callers. The parlors were pretty in pot plants and flowers. A beautiful tea table was presided over by Mesdames Geo. A. Wright, Eppner Cohen, John Teamer, Ed Kingsbury, Edgar Hill, Hugo Reiche and Ed O'Connor. These ladies served dainty refreshments. This Aid now numbers 135 new members and 67 old ones, a total of 202. Every one will say, isn't that fine? Labor has always a sweet reward, and this means work by those armies.

Acorn Club.

The Acorn Club met Saturday afternoon with Mrs. C. J. Grainger. Election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. E. J. Ezell. Vice President, Mrs. P. H. Hughes. Recording Secretary, Mrs. Ed Short. Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Will Bailey. Treasurer, Mrs. F. C. Bailey. Critic, Miss Eva Crozier.

Outing at Spring Park.

Miss Myrtle Williams complimented her class of the Centenary Methodist Sunday school with an all-day outing Saturday. After the long winter indoors the children were delighted with the lovely occasion. At noon the large dining room was used and the table spread for the following. The afternoon was passed in games and kodaking:

Mrs. M. L. Holzheuser, chaperon; Miss Lillie Kersh, chaperon; Miss Myrtle Williams, teacher; Gertie May Hunger, Sarah Fowler, Mable Richardson, Carrie Nell Marsh, Nena Pennybacker, Johnnie Wylie, Eleanor Watson, Lois Crawford, Laura Stedman, Ellen Hughes, Eloise Williams, Ollie Garress, Lois Holzheuser, Ivy Holzheuser, Mattie Mae McDonald, Mildred Dunlop, Robbie Lee Holzheuser, Master Claude Williams, Master Paul Wallace Williams; guests, Rev. J. W. Bergin of Longview, Rev. Jas. Kilgore, Miss Mannie Rhodes.

Mrs. H. Horwitz and daughter, Doris, have returned from a visit to Austin.

Well, I am back and ready for business. I find there are other tuners in the field, but that is all right; there is work enough for all, and if I can't get all the work I can do without running down other tuners, I just won't get the work, that is all. I will get to my old customers as soon as possible. If you are in a hurry just drop me a card, or phone 1084. Would be glad to take any new customers that want me to do their work. Satisfaction guaranteed. Yours for piano tuning, H. M. Jones. Box 814. 22-1f

EASY TO CURE

Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat and Catarrh.

Breathe Hyomei. It will cure catarrh or any nose or throat trouble if you follow directions. Don't lay it aside when the snuffing, hawking and spitting have ceased. Stick to it daily until you are sure that the catarrh germ is dead, and that your air passages are free from their poisonous influence. Hyomei (pronounced High-o-mei) is the only treatment for nose, throat and lung troubles that has ever been sold with the understanding that if it did not cure it was to cost absolutely nothing.

Hyomei can be obtained at drug-gists everywhere and at Bratton Drug Co., who guarantee it to cure catarrh, croup, sore throat, coughs and colds. A complete outfit $1.00, which is mighty cheap for a remedy that has cured more cases of catarrh than all the catarrh specialists on earth.

An outfit consists of an Inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei, a supply of antiseptic gauze, a medicine dropper, and full instructions for use. The Inhaler is made pocket size, of hard rubber, and will last a lifetime. And bear in mind that extra bottles of Hyomei, if needed, cost only 50 cents.—Adv.

WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR REMEDY

Grew a Full Growth of Hair on a Bald Head

Here's the Proof

For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin, until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly, until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is now fairly covered with hair and it keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.

The birthright of every man, woman and child—a full, healthy head of hair. If your hair is falling, if it is full of dandruff, or if it is faded or turning gray, it is diseased and should be looked after without delay.

WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR REMEDY, a true Hair Tonic and Restorer, removes dandruff in a few days, stops hair falling in one week, and starts a new growth in a month.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur does not soil the skin nor injure the hair; but it is an ideal hair dressing that will restore faded and gray hair to natural color and keep the hair soft and glossy.
